Head's Hello

On Monday we had a moderation visit from the Local Authority to check the teacher assessment of our year 6 writing. We are delighted to tell you that the moderator agreed with all of our judgements and was extremely impressed with the quality of writing in year 6, with 81% of our children reaching the expected level, which is above the national average. We are very proud of all of our children for the progress they have made and thank Mrs Faircloth and Mr Stead for their hard work and dedication. Year 6 also had an internet safety workshop this week. The NSPCC has some excellent resources which provide a guide to the apps and games available to children at <https://www.net-aware.org.uk/>
