Head's Hello,

As a school, we are always trying to improve communication between ourselves and our school community. Although each class already has a parent representative, we wanted to build on this and have an open forum with a half termly parent coffee morning. This will usually take place during the last week of every half term and each coffee morning will have a broad focus (although you can bring any issues or ideas to us). We will ask parent reps to attend, as well as different staff members depending on the focus on the morning. We hope that this will be a fun and informal way of strengthening communication between the school and our parent body. The first coffee morning will be on Thursday the 7th of April at 9:30am. The coffee morning will take place in the school hall. All parents and carers are welcome.

The staff body have all been thinking about the people of Ukraine this week and a number of parents have reached out to us to think about how we can help. We know that this is upsetting and worrying for lots of children and we understand that each family choose the best way to communicate about the war in Ukraine with their children. School respect that this will be very different family to family, so we have provided teachers with age-appropriate resources and teachers are happy to be listening ears or to talk through concerns with any pupils at playtimes or lunchtimes. Please send your class teacher a dojo if your child is particularly worried or upset and we will try our best to help.

Please see these links below about talking to your child about the war in Ukraine and a link for donations to the Red Cross

8th December 2020

Dear Parent/Carer

Here at Lostwithiel School we recognise that there are occasions when it is appropriate to authorise an absence, such as when a pupil is genuinely too ill to attend school, has a medical appointment that cannot be taken outside of school hours or a request for leave has been agreed in exceptional circumstances. However, the Government does not support parents taking children out of school unless the school agrees this is appropriate under 'exceptional circumstances'. Any request for leave should be made in writing to the Headteacher using the school's request form and must be completed by all adults with parental responsibility.

If your child is absent from school without authorisation, you will be committing an offence under the Education Act 1996. We may submit a request to Cornwall Council for a Penalty Notice to be issued, in accordance with Sections 444A and 444B of the said Act. Penalty Notices are issued per liable parent, per child and each carry a fine of £60 if paid within 21 days or £120 if paid after this but within 28 days. Failure to pay the Penalty Notice may result in legal action. Absence not authorised by the school may result in a prosecution in the Magistrates' Court under Section 444(1) or Section 444(1A) of the Education Act 1996, leading to a fine of up to £2,500 and/or a custodial sentence. Cornwall Council may also apply for the costs incurred in taking the matter to Court.

'Parent' as set out in Section 576 of the Education Act 1996, defines parent to include: natural parents, whether they are married or not; any person or body who has parental responsibility for a child (as defined by the Children Act 1989) and; any person who, although not a natural parent, has care of a child. Having care of a child means a person with whom a child lives and who looks after a child, irrespective of what their relationship is with said child.

The decision to submit a request for the issue of a Penalty Notice will be considered when a child's attendance is deemed to be 'not regular'. The definition of 'not regular' in this instance is when it is below the threshold set by Cornwall Education Learning Trust (CELT). For all CELT schools, this attendance threshold is set at 96%, in line with national attendance data. In the Autumn Term, a child's attendance for the previous academic year will be considered before deciding on a course of action. From January onwards, the decision will be based on attendance data from the current academic year.

You are welcome to contact the school to discuss any concerns you may have regarding this or if you feel you would like advice or support in helping your child attend more regularly. Lostwithiel School is committed to maximising the education of all its pupils and aims to work with parents to ensure this can be achieved.

Yours sincerely

Natalie Simmonds
