Head's Hello,

This week we have been exploring different faiths with our visitor Daya and with class trips to the church in town for their harvest workshops. All of our work exploring spirituality and faith links to the Rights Respecting Schools work we are doing. Article 14 of the UN convention states that Every child has the right to think and believe what they choose and also to practise their religion, as long as they are not stopping other people from enjoying their rights. Governments must respect the rights and responsibilities of parents to guide their child as they grow up. We hope that all of the pupils at our school respect each others thoughts and beliefs.

Thank you to the LSA for hosting the tea party today for all of our new Apple Class parents. It has been lovely to see the Apple pupils enjoy their first full week in school. We hope that all of the pupils have settled into their new classes well.

Natalie Simmonds
Headteacher
